Customer Reviews

This post is a formal expert review for the new book published by Charisma House (Siloam), entitled Answers For the 4 A Epidemic, Healing For Kids With Autism, ADHD, Asthma and Allergies. I am excited about this book and was happy to read it for several reasons.1. As my husband and I are gearing up to launch a church, we will be confronted with prayer issues from families dealing with these disorders. Indeed, I already know too many families effected by Autism, especially, and some families in which more than one child has this diagnosis or multiple disorders present simultaneously.2. In lay ministry, pastoral counseling and small group ministry over the years, my husband and I have had much experience with helping and praying for kids affected and their parents who provide high level care.³ I spent 12 years in the pharmaceutical industry, and led a global publications plan for a drug product for ADHD used in adolescents and young adults. As a PharmD and consultant pharmacist and researcher I've seen how meds can work, as well as their utter limitations. Dr. Cannizarro does not discount them, he just shows how much can be done outside of and in adjunct to their use. Many times kids diagnosed with one of these disorders will also have 2 or more. In my instance, I developed asthma and allergies in my twenties. Now in my 40's I'm still suffering. However, a recent major dietary modification I've initiated has almost completely alleviated my symptoms. I happen to be on a low sodium diet very similar the types of plan Dr. Cannizarro suggests. As a complete surprise to me, about 3 weeks after I started my lifestyle change, a wonderful and unexpected change occurred - all my morning allergies cleared up.
