Synopsis

The honeymoon, a well deserved rest and holiday after your big day. Plans for the wedding are coming together and now you need to look beyond, to the destination that will best define the start of your married life. Planning a honeymoon holiday is fun and exciting because unlike other forms of travel this time itâ€™s to give you rest and recovery from your big day and to now spend that quality time together planning the rest of your lives. The author uses tips and tricks of the trade, as a former travel agent, seasoned traveller, a backpacker who has worked and lived overseas as well as more importantly was planning his own honeymoon holiday at the time of writing this book. This guide is a great reference that will assist you in getting the honeymoon you have always dreamed of, all while focusing on minimising the expenses for the trip including tips for airfares, hotels, packages and more. The guide also goes through the worldâ€™s most popular honeymoon destinations on tropical islands and romantic cities.
